City and Ysleta ISD Partner to Offer Free Flu Vaccines to Community

Be PowerFlu Prevention Campaign Aims to Save Lives

El Paso, Texas – The City of El Paso Department of Public Health and Fire Department, in partnership with the Ysleta Independent School District, are offering free flu vaccines to those 6 months of age and older during this flu season.

The drive-thru site is free of charge for all Ysleta ISD employees, students, families, and all members of the community; no appointment or insurance is needed:

Ysleta ISD Central Office

(Lower Level Parking Lot)

9600 Sims Drive

Saturday, October 7

10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

The “Be PowerFlu” prevention campaign is meant to reduce the number of flu cases and prevent serious flu-related illnesses. Reducing the number of flu cases will also reduce the number of flu-related hospitalizations and keep our community healthy.

For more locations and information about the flu vaccine, visit bepowerflu.com.
