El Paso, Texas— The Special Traffic Investigations unit was called out to 600 N. Stanton to investigate a head-on crash that occurred this past Sunday. The preliminary investigation revealed Machorro was speeding the wrong way on Stanton street. Machorro and two other passengers were in a 2014 Camaro when they struck Olivan head-on, who was traveling north on Stanton. After the crash, fire medical services responded and transported both drivers to a local hospital. Machorro was treated for minor injuries; unfortunately, Olivan died at the hospital. Machorro was charged with Intoxication Manslaughter and booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility. This fatality is the 11th fatality in 2023 compared to 6 at the same time in 2022.
