El Paso, Texas— Special Traffic Investigations unit continues to investigate yesterday's fatality. At around 9:28 am, police were notified of a two-vehicle crash at the intersection of Montwood and Seagull. The initial investigation revealed Alonzo was traveling south at the 1900 block of Seagull and stopped at the intersection of Montwood. She then entered the intersection to make a left turn to Montwood. At the same time Sotelo was traveling west on Montwood. Alonzo did not yield to the Nissan and was t-boned by the truck. Fire Medical Services were called to the scene and transported Alonzo to a local hospital. Unfortunately, Alonzo died from her injuries. The contributing factors that may have played a role in this crash are failing to yield the right of way on behalf of Alonzo and speed on behalf of Sotelo. This is the 12th fatality this year compared to 12 this same time last year.
