

Neighborhood Association Partnership Program

Recognizing that when dealing with disasters, we can accomplish more together as a group than as individuals, the El Paso Fire Department will build a collaborative partnership between the department and the local neighborhood associations. The goal is to fully integrate the El Paso Fire Department into the community through outreach efforts, and establish a line of communication between the neighborhood associations and their neighborhood responders.

Check back to this site for updated information coming soon.