The EPMA Foundation Collectors' Club announces a trip open to the Public to Chihuahua City in celebration of the opening of Annabel Livermore-Jornada del Muerto vista por los ojos de la esposa del rancho at the Centro Cultural Quinta Gameros, the first ever exhibition curated by EPMA to travel to Mexico.

For Immediate Release: January 23, 2008

Contact: Jeff Romney, Head of Development (915) 532-1707 x 13

The El Paso Museum of Art Foundation Collectors' Club will be traveling to Chihuahua City February 22-24, 2008 for a stay at Hotel Sicomoro with visits to local museums and galleries. At the top of the agenda will be a visit to the Centro Cultural Quinta Gameros at the Universidad Autonoma de Chihuahua for a private reception commemorating the opening of Annabel Livermore - Jornada del Muerto vista por los ojos de la esposa del rancho (Annabelle Livermore – Journey of Death as Seen Through the Eyes of the Rancher's Wife), an exhibition which was curated by Christian Gerstheimer and is the first exhibition to be curated by EPMA to travel to Mexico. As with the trip to Casas Grandes, Chihuahua in June, 2007, the Collectors' Club is opening up this trip to non-Club members for an additional fee. Join us for a great trip that will celebrate current historic accomplishments by the El Paso Museum of Art and will visit Casa Juarez, Casa Villa, and other sites in Chihuahua City.
