Medication Disposal Bags Program Presentation

EL PASO, Texas – On Wednesday, December 11th, the El Paso Fire Department and nonprofit, Aliviane, will present a new joint initiative to provide medication disposal bags for the community. The press conference will take place at the EPFD's Safety Health and Outreach Center located at 5415 Trowbridge Dr. at 11:00 AM.

The Deterra Prescription Medication Disposal Bags allow for the safe and easy disposal of prescription medication. The bags will be available for the community at all El Paso Fire Department stations at no cost. During the press conference, additional participating local and county public safety agencies will be present.
