

Section 8. Formal Counseling.

Formal Counseling is not within the type of disciplinary action specified in Section 6.13-2 of the Charter which may be appealed to the Civil Service Commission. A formal counseling is issued by the Department Head and considered a written counseling to address employee workplace conduct. Employees receiving a formal counseling shall have the right to place responses to the formal counseling into their personnel files which shall remain in the file so long as the formal counseling to which the response relates remains in the file.

Included in, or in conjunction with, the formal counseling document, the Department Head must provide the employee with written notice of the reasons for the formal counseling, with sufficient explanation to place the employee fairly upon his defense.

Upon an employee's request, formal counselings shall be removed from an employee's personnel file after the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date of the last formal counseling, provided the employee has not received any disciplinary action during the twelve (12) month time period between the request and the last-received formal counseling. Formal counselings meeting the criteria above shall not be considered against the employee for purposes of determining progressive discipline or performance evaluations, regardless of whether or not the employee requested removal of the formal counselings.
