Investigators Charge Westside Man in Sunday Morning Robbery

Date/Time: Sunday, November 20, 2016 @ 7:30 a.m.

Location: 400 S. Mesa Hills (7-11)

Arrested: 47-year old Lawrence HUEY of El Paso, TX

EL PASO, TEXAS: Officers and investigators assigned to the El Paso Police Department's Westside Regional Command Center have arrested and charged 47-year old Lawrence HUEY with two counts of Aggravated Robbery and Possession of Marijuana Under 2 oz., after a Sunday morning Aggravated Robbery. The investigation revealed that HUEY entered the 7-11 store at 400 S. Mesa Hills at 7:18 a.m., using a knife he demanded monies that were inside the cash register from the clerk. HUEY fled the store with U.S. Currency from the register. Westside detectives were called to assist with the investigation. Investigators and officers located HUEY at a residence a short distance away from the store. He was identified as the individual who committed the robbery. Upon further investigation, detectives were able to recover clothing and the weapon used in the offense. He was placed under arrest for two counts of Aggravated Robbery and was found to be in possession of Marijuana. He was booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility and his bonds totaled $150,300.00.
