NEWS RELEASE

Current Scam in El Paso

Date & Time: Friday, June 8, 2018 - Current Location: Various

EL PASO, Texas – The El Paso Police Department has been made aware that a current phone scam has begun again in El Paso. The scam involves citizens of El Paso receiving a phone call from an individual, that identifies themselves as the FBI. The caller says that the individual has warrants for an unspecified crime and that they must pay a certain amount of money. Approximately thirty (30) individuals have called the Northeast Regional Command Center (NERCC) advising that the calls are coming from the NERCC’s phone number. The El Paso Police Department does NOT make these calls, nor does the FBI. If you have received a call from 915.212.8100 (Northeast Regional Command Center’s main line) or any other number, please report this incident online to Internet Crime Complaint Center at ic3.gov.
