EL PASO, Texas – Crimes Against Persons detectives have charged a 22 –year old man with the murder that occurred early Saturday morning. Northeast Regional command officers responded to a stabbing call at 4649 Loma Del Sur and found the three assault victims and the offender. The investigation revealed that Torian Davis, Anthony Velasco and a 25 –year old female were inside an apartment consuming alcoholic beverages and drugs. Without any provocation Davis slashed Velasco’s throat and then stabbed the female victim. 23 –year old Jared Abes had just parked his car in the parking lot when Davis went outside and randomly pummeled him. The three victims were transported to University Medical Center where the female was later pronounced deceased, Abes remains in ICU, and Velasco was released after being treated. Davis was placed under arrest but remains admitted at the hospital for a medical condition.
