PROPOSAL INSTRUCTIONS

(Instructions do not need to be submitted with ESG Completeness Checklist)

- Read and follow all directions on the individual pages. Make sure your packet is complete, and contains only the required documents. Do not include letters of support or other extraneous materials.
- The City regards your proposal in part as a test of management capacity. Applications that are well written using correct grammar and spelling and containing no math errors reflect well on the management of your organization.
- Pages should be in order align with Table of Contents.
- We advise having someone other than the grant writer complete the checklist to verify the packet is complete.
- Abstract must be signed by someone who is legally authorized to sign documents on behalf of the organization.
- Legal Name should be organization's full name as it appears on the Articles of Incorporation, and should include "Inc." or any other words.
- In the narrative portion, provide a clear, comprehensive description for your proposed project. The proposal narrative may be no more than nine single-sided pages in length. Text must be single spaced, in Times New Roman font 12 points, with a one inch margin on all four sides.
- Include section headings such as:
 - Problem Statement
- Avoid acronyms or technical jargon as much as possible. When it is necessary to use such terms, explain them. Check your grammar and spelling.
- Make sure to follow the directions on the Outcome Statement Worksheet to develop your formal Outcome Statement. Use HUD's wording as instructed.
- Use MS Excel version for the budget forms. The budget forms are not subject to the same font and margin rules as the narrative. Use whole numbers in figuring your budgets. Do not forget to complete the Multi-Site page (mark it as N/A if your project has only one site). Check your arithmetic.
- Make sure to submit a Partner Supplement for every Partner performing services under the contract that is projected to receive $5,000 or more in DCHD funding.
- Make sure to submit an ADA Self-Evaluation form for every site (aka physical location) where the project will be held, as well as your administrative office. If you have questions about the ADA forms, please contact the City's Accessibility Coordinator.
