Parks and Recreation Department Opens Registration for Mini Sports and Recreational Leagues

EL PASO, Texas—The El Paso Parks and Recreation Department is now accepting registrations for the spring season of Mini Sports and Recreational Leagues, offered at multiple recreation centers across the City.

The Mini Sports program is designed for children ages 4 to 7, while Recreational Leagues are geared toward youth ages 8 to 12. Both programs focus on teamwork, sportsmanship, and player development, helping young athletes learn the rules, skills, and fundamentals of each sport in a fun and supportive environment.

The registration fee is $40 per participant, plus a $5 mandatory parent class. Need-based youth scholarships are available for qualifying families.

Sports offered include basketball, soccer, t-ball, kickball, and more, depending on the location. Practice times vary by center, and all games are scheduled for 9 a.m. on Saturdays.
