Museums and Cultural Affairs Department Hosts Open House Meetings on Public Art

EL PASO, Texas— The City of El Paso Museums and Cultural Affairs Department (MCAD) invites the community to a series of open house meetings to learn more about the Public Art Program and to provide input on the development of the new Public Art Master Plan.

The public is encouraged to attend any of the following open-house meetings:

Tuesday, April 8

5:30 p.m. @ Esperanza Acosta Moreno Library, 12480 Pebble Hills Blvd.

Wednesday, April 9

5:30 p.m. @ Northgate Transfer Center at Metro 31, 9348 Diana Dr.

Thursday, April 10

5:30 p.m. @ Sylvia A. Carreon Community Center, 709 Lomita Dr.

Each session will feature presentations by City staff and Public Art Program leaders, offering insights into the program's history and the vision for its future. Attendees will also have the opportunity to participate in interactive activities designed to capture community perspectives and priorities for public art in El Paso.

Community input is essential to shaping the next decade of the Public Art Program, which has completed 94 projects since its launch in 2006.

For more information about the Public Art Program, visit EPMCAD.org/experience-art/public-art.
