Insect Night Returns to El Paso Museum of Archaeology

EL PASO, Texas—The El Paso Museum of Archaeology (EPMArch) welcomes the community to the Fourth annual Insect Night from 7 to 10 p.m. Saturday, July 26, 2025.

Guests of all ages will enjoy learning about the insects that populate the Chihuahuan Desert with activities including:

- Insect-filled night hikes leaving periodically from trailheads at the museum
- Fun hands-on activities for all ages
- Insect observation opportunities including specimen boards and moths for live insects
- Creepy crawly giveaways sponsored by El Paso Electric
- Multiple types of edible insects for sale at the Museum Store
- Tables and activities from partners including sister Museums and Cultural Affairs Department sites, the El Paso Zoo, the El Paso Public Library, and many external partners

Insect Night is free and family-friendly, with no sign-up required.

The El Paso Museum of Archaeology is free and open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday to Saturday. For more information, please visit www.EPMArch.org.
