City of El Paso Gears Up for Exciting Fall Festivals

Family-Friendly Fun for Everyone

EL PASO, Texas—The City of El Paso is proud to announce a dynamic lineup of fall festivals that will bring art, culture, entertainment, and holiday cheer to the heart of downtown and beyond.

From creative street art to cultural celebrations and winter wonderlands, these family-friendly events are free or low-cost and open to the public. The fall festival season will include the following highlights:

Chalk the Block

October 11–12 | Downtown Arts District

Now in its 18th year, Chalk the Block is the region's largest public arts festival. The event draws more than 45,000 visitors and nearly 200 artists to downtown for a weekend filled with vibrant chalk art, installations, live performances, and hands-on fun for all ages.

TeenTober Fest

October 18 | Judge Marquez Library – 610 N Yarbrough

Hosted by the El Paso Public Libraries, TeenTober Fest celebrates teens and teen services with a day of music, games, food trucks, and resource booths. The free event empowers teens by connecting them with local organizations and helping them explore their talents and interests.

Día de los Muertos Festival

November 1 | Downtown Arts District and Mexican American Cultural Center (MACC)

Centered at the newly opened MACC, this beloved celebration of life honors tradition through community altars, live performances, art, food, and a parade. The Día de los Muertos Festival is a signature event that brings families together to reflect and rejoice in rich cultural heritage.

WinterFest 2025

November 22 | Downtown El Paso (Runs through January 5, 2026)

Celebrating 10 years, WinterFest transforms Downtown into a holiday wonderland. With festive lights, the City's only light parade, an outdoor ice rink, shopping, food, and entertainment, WinterFest is the largest event of its kind in the Southwest, drawing thousands of visitors throughout the six-week season.
