El Paso Scenic Drive & McKelligon Canyon to Temporarily Close for Pavement Marking Improvements

EL PASO, Texas—Scenic Drive and the road leading to McKelligon Canyon will be temporarily closed on separate days in March to allow crews to complete pavement marking improvements.

Scenic Drive will be closed Monday, March 2 through Friday, March 6. During the closure, crews will remove existing pavement markings, prepare the surface, install new striping, and add raised pavement markers and parking delineations to improve visibility and traffic organization.

McKelligon Canyon will be closed Monday, March 23 for pavement marking improvements, including striping and installation of raised pavement markers.

Motorists and visitors are encouraged to plan ahead and use alternate routes during the scheduled closures. Access will be restored as soon as work is completed, weather and unforeseen conditions permitting.

The City appreciates the community's patience and cooperation as these upgrades support ongoing efforts to enhance safety, traffic flow, and roadway visibility for all users.
