GOOOAL! City Invites Community to Free Soccer Watch Party at Cleveland Square Park Celebrate Goals and Saves Under the Stars

EL PASO, Texas—Grab your lawn chair, wear your team colors, and get ready to cheer because El Paso is throwing a free community watch party for one of the most anticipated matchups of the summer.

The City of El Paso invites fans to Cleveland Square Park at 7 p.m. Thursday, June 18, to watch Mexico take on South Korea on the giant outdoor screen located outside the Mexican American Cultural Center. Whether you're a die-hard fútbol fan or just looking for a great night out, the watch party offers an opportunity to come together and enjoy the excitement of the game.

Attendees are encouraged to arrive early, find a spot, and enjoy an evening filled with soccer, community spirit, and family-friendly activities. The event will feature:

- Soccer player card trading
- Giveaways and raffles
- Complimentary snacks while supplies last
- A lively atmosphere to cheer on every save, goal, and memorable moment

The event is free and open to the public. Guests are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets for comfortable seating.

The community watch party is hosted by the City of El Paso Parks and Recreation Department, the Mexican American Cultural Center, and Telemundo 48 El Paso.
