A Spooky Summer Celebration Awaits at El Paso Public Libraries

EL PASO, Texas—Summer is getting a spooky twist as El Paso Public Libraries invites the community to celebrate Summerween from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday, July 10, at the Jose Cisneros Cielo Vista Library, 1300 Hawkins Blvd.

Families are invited to trade flip-flops for fangs and enjoy a frightfully fun evening where Halloween meets summertime. The free event will feature games, crafts, music, costume contests, community partners, food vendors, and interactive activities for ghouls and goblins of all ages.

Guests are encouraged to get creative with their costumes by giving Halloween favorites a summer makeover. Think vampires in Hawaiian shirts, beach-loving witches, surfing skeletons, ghostly lifeguards, or any other imaginative Summerween creation.

The spooky summer fun continues with a screening of Hotel Transylvania 3: Summer Vacation, making it the perfect way for families to cool off and enjoy a spooky summer night together.

"Summerween is a fun and creative way to bring families together while encouraging literacy and community connection," said El Paso Public Libraries Director Norma Martinez. "Whether you're making crafts, enjoying entertainment, meeting local organizations, or showing off your Summerween costume, there's something for everyone. We invite the entire community to join us for this unique celebration."

Admission is free, and everyone is welcome.
