EL PASO, Texas — A 21 –year old woman was arrested yesterday morning after she stabbed the man in whose home she had been staying. Pebble Hills Regional Command officers responded the stabbing call and found 30 –year old Keith Miller suffering from a stab wound to his shoulder. The investigation revealed that Miller and 21 –year old Lizeth Corona had been arguing but refused to part ways when officers responded to the home earlier. Later, the argument continued and Corona packed her belongings into her car and proceeded to ram Millers truck in the driveway. Miller barricaded himself inside the home but Corona was able to reenter the home by knocking over the dresser used as a barricade. Corona then picked up a piece of broken glass and stabbed Miller. Corona was booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility for Aggravated Assault under a $250,000 bond.
