Man Breaks Into Business, Runs from Officers and Resists Arrest

Date and time: April 26, 2021 at approximately 5:40 pm

Location: 3623 Buckner

Offender: 40 –year old male (Hispanic)

EL PASO, Texas — A man was taken into custody after an officer, responding to a call of a man attempting to enter a closed business, saw him break in. Witnesses reported seeing the man pulling on the locked doors at the business that had closed for the day. A solo officer arrived and commanded the man to stop but he managed to force the door open and run inside. Other officers arrived and chased after the man inside the business. He was taken into custody after a struggle to subdue and handcuff him. A taser was used in efforts to bring him under control. As the man was being escorted outside he collapsed and was transported to an area hospital where he pronounced deceased. Crimes Against Persons, Texas Department of Public Safety Texas Rangers and Internal Affairs are conducting investigations of the in custody death.
