EL PASO, Texas — Pebble Hills Patrol officers arrested a man involved in a spree of crimes that began late Tuesday night. Officers responded to the Circle K store at 4201 N. Mesa to a call of a beer run. The call was upgraded when it was reported the same subject stole a box truck from the parking lot there. A combative Carlos Emmanuel Andrade was taken into custody at 6099 Montana after officers disabled the box truck during a pursuit. Prior to the pursuit that resulted in his arrest, Andrade crashed into a house and cars in the Pebble Hills area and struck a pedestrian in the central area. The pedestrian sustained minor injuries. Andrade was booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility. The investigation is ongoing and additional charges are pending.
