EL PASO, Texas — Crimes Against Persons detectives are continuing the investigation into last night's murder that occurred in the parking lot of the Headquarters Bar on Tularosa. Patrol officers responded to the shooting call and found two victims laying on the ground in the parking lot. Patrol units later responded to calls of shooting victims receiving treatment at two hospitals. Investigation has revealed groups of females were escorted from the Headquarters bar after having been involved in arguments and fights. The fights resumed in the parking lot with the victims attempting to separate those involved in the fight. An unknown male walked up and indiscriminately fired shots at the victims. The shooter then ran to a car parked across the street at the public parking lot next to police headquarters and fled the scene.
