EL PASO, Texas — A 28-year old man was arrested yesterday after committing a series of crimes in a Westside neighborhood. At 12:30 p.m., a man parked his truck in his driveway at 6900 block of Granero, leaving his keys in the ignition. Minutes later, the truck owner witnessed his vehicle being driven away from his residence. The owner borrowed a truck from another man where the theft occurred and followed his vehicle. A chase ensued during which the driver in the stolen truck rammed into the vehicle, following him. The pursuit came to an end at a retirement home on Belvidere, where the offender, later identified as 28- year old Sanuel David Demeo, fled into a nearby neighborhood. The offender continued his crime spree by entering another unlocked car parked in a driveway at the 7100 block of Gran Vida, where he stole property from the car. Demeo then exited the vehicle and broke into the residence, where he encountered an 81-year old resident’s caretaker. Demeo fled after that; however responding officers chased Demeo across several backyards and apprehended him at the 600 block of Bristol after a brief struggle. Demeo was booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
