Location: 200 block of Baltimore

Offender: Lavonte Keshawn Henry 26 years of age of Ft. Bliss

Charge: Deadly Conduct

Bond: $30,000 Judge: Jail Magistrate Joseph

EL PASO, Texas — A 26 year old man was arrested today for a shooting on New Year's Day. Officers working the Cincinnati Entertainment District operation heard shots fired and saw a car speeding away from the 200 block of Baltimore. TAC units followed the speeding car and conducted a felony stop of the vehicle driven by Lavonte Keshawn Henry. Henry was found in possession of a .40 caliber handgun and spent casings were located inside the vehicle. Henry was arrested at the scene that night for DWI and booked into jail. Officers checking the area where the shots were fired located bullet holes at the front door and bullet fragments inside of a business located at the 200 block of Baltimore. A warrant for Deadly Conduct was issued for Henry's arrest. This afternoon, Ft. Bliss officials turned custody of Henry over to El Paso Police officers. Henry has been booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
