El Paso, Texas — Three individuals were arrested Wednesday night after they fled from officers both in a vehicle and later on foot. Auto Theft detectives were conducting surveillance when they saw the three offenders, Wesley Stubbs, Catya Chavira, and Genovevo Gallegos driving in a stolen 2007 Chevrolet Silverado. The three stopped in the area of Talbot and Trans-Mountain, exited the truck, entered and drove off in a 2018 Chevrolet Malibu, which was also reported as a stolen vehicle. Officers in a marked police car initiated a stop but the subjects in the Malibu evaded and accelerated away. A vehicle pursuit ensued and ended in the Sunset Heights area when the three offenders abandoned the car and fled on foot. Police units from the Westside Command, Central Command and the Auto Theft Task force converged on the area. Chavira and Gallegos were arrested in the area near Upson. Stubbs was located when a passerby reported a suspicious person walking on I-10. He was chased and arrested after a brief struggle near the UTEP Campus.

The three were booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
