Two Arrested After Stabbing Man in Parking Lot

Date/Time: 03/12/2023 @ 6:21 P.M.
Location : 11701 Gateway West (Buck's Cabaret)
Victim: Casey Kelley, 35 years of age, Horizon City, Texas Resident
Arrested: Anthony Yepez, 25 years of age, East El Paso Resident
Arrested: Ethan Edward Alvarez, 23 years age, East El Paso Resident

El Paso, Texas – Two men are arrested after stabbing another in the parking lot of an adult club in East El Paso. On Sunday, March 12, at 6:21 P.M., El Paso Police Officers responded to Buck's Cabaret at 11701 Gateway West on a stabbing call. The Officers found 35-year-old Casey Kelley had been stabbed by two men who fled. The responding Officers attended to Kelley and applied a tourniquet to one of the victim's injuries. Fire-Medical personnel transported Kelley to the hospital. Officers located the two men in a nearby area. The suspects were 25-year-old Anthony Paul Yepez and 23-year-old Ethan Edward Alvarez.

Detectives from the Crimes Against Persons Unit, Pebble Hills Regional Command, and members of the Criminalistics Unit responded to the scene. The victim, was last listed in serious condition. Investigators found that the suspects became involved in a fight with the victim in the parking lot. One of the suspects pulled out a knife and stabbed the victim.

Both Yepez and Alvarez have been charged with Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon, a second-degree felony. Judge Compton issued both men a bond of $250,000. Yepez was additionally charged with Possession of Cocaine Under One Gram, a State Jail Felony and was issued a $10,000 bond on that charge. Both men were booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
