Man Seriously Injured In Early Morning Crash

Date/Time: 03/26/2023 @ 2:22 A.M.
Location: 11400 block of James Grant
Vehicle: 2019 Chevrolet Colorado, Pick-up, Black
Driver: Hispanic male, 22-years of age, Eastside El Paso

El Paso, Texas – A man was seriously injured after crashing his truck into a mailbox and a parked R.V. On Sunday, March 26, 2023, Patrol Officers of the El Paso Police Department responded to a crash at the 11400 block of James Grant.

The driver, a 22-year-old man, was seriously injured and taken to the hospital. Investigators from the Special Traffic Investigations Unit (S.T.I.) responded to assist with the investigation.

Investigators found that the 22-year-old man was driving eastbound on James Grant at a high rate of speed. The driver veered right, struck a brick mailbox, and then struck the back of an R.V. parked in front of a home. Debris from the crash struck three other vehicles on the driveway. The preliminary investigation revealed speed as a contributing factor. Investigators will have to await test results to determine if alcohol was involved. The 22-year-old man's injuries are considered life-threatening and was last listed in serious condition.
