El Paso, Texas - Northeast Patrol Officers responded to Gateway South and Broadus to a reported shooting. Murphy was located in the middle of the intersection yelling for help stating that he had been shot. A second call was later received from the 7500 Block of Howard reference a home invasion. The victims advised a subject matching Murphy's description forced his way into their residence discharged a weapon inside of the home and during that course shot their dog. 37-year-old Suniga told officers he took out his own handgun and fired back at Murphy. Crimes Against Persons Detectives, Northeast CID Detectives and Detectives of the Animal Cruelty Investigative Unit responded to the scene. A warrant was obtained for Burglary of Habitation with a bond of $500,000 signed by Judge Priddy. Murphy was transported to the hospital and will be booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility upon his release. Investigation continues....
