Charge: Burglary of Habitation Bond: $100,000 Judge: Myers

El Paso, Texas – On April 7th, 2023 Officers from Pebble Hills Regional Command responded to the 1400 Block of Avalon to a sexual assault in progress. Officers met with the 19-year-old female victim who told the officers she was exiting her residence to let her dog out. The victim told officers as she was exiting the offender immediately confronted the victim and forced himself inside of the residence. The offender attempted to sexually assault the victim but the victim was able to fight off the offender. The offender fled the scene and the victim immediately called 911 to report the attempted sexual assault. The victim later recalled being at a laundromat and remembered seeing a male at the laundromat who looked like the offender. Further investigation by Crimes Against Persons Detectives was conducted and Christopher Aaron Ray was identified as the offender. A warrant for Burglary of Habitation with a bond of $100,000 was obtained for Christopher Aaron Ray.
