History

EL PASO, Texas — Pebble Hills Regional Command Center Officers were called to investigate a shooting early Saturday morning. The preliminary information suggests an altercation occurred outside the establishment between two men. During the altercation, one subject fired a gun striking the 38-year-old victim. The 38-year-old man was transported to a local hospital and treated for non-life-threatening injuries. Crimes Against Persons Detectives have taken the lead in the investigation and ask the public if they have any information to please call the non-emergency number of 915-832-4400 or, to remain anonymous, call Crimes Stoppers Of El Paso at 915-566-8477. The shooter remains outstanding.
