El Paso, Texas— On August 2, 2023, officers in the northeast were called out to 4525 Sunrise for an aggravated assault and family violence in progress. Upon the officer's arrival, they learned Hernandez verbally argued with his girlfriend and left the area with a gun. Officers sent a broadcast to other officers, informing them of Hernandez's description. Nearby officers spotted Hernandez at 4600 Sunrise and placed him in custody. Hernandez was found to have a pistol in his pocket. Gang investigators were called in to assist in the investigation. The investigation determined that Hernandez had fired a shotgun inside his apartment at his bedroom wall into an adjacent apartment where three children were asleep.
