El Paso, Texas— On Sunday morning, officers responded to a stabbing call at the 4100 block of Kasper Way. When officers arrived, they located a 46-year-old male who had been stabbed and was unresponsive. The unresponsive man, later identified as Juan Garcia, was transported to a local hospital, where he succumbed to his injuries. During the investigation, it was learned the victim had an altercation with Mijares. Later that day, officers located Mijares at a Wal-Mart parking lot at 1850 N. Zaragoza. Mijares was arrested and charged with Murder and booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
