El Paso, Texas— Police recovered three guns while arresting three employees who threatened a customer at a drive-through on December 09, 2023. At approximately 8:36 pm, police received a disturbance call advising of a subject with a weapon. When officers arrived, they learned a 41-year-old victim had gone through the drive-through with his girlfriend. While at the drive-through, the girlfriend attempted to order doughnuts. According to her, the employee was rude, and when asked to speak to the manager, the employee on the other end of the intercom stated he was the manager with explicit language. The woman drove toward the window when one employee walked out of the back of the store, followed by two other employees. During this altercation, the three employees brandished handguns. One of the employees chambered a round in the pistol, pointed the gun at the 41-year-old customer, and verbally threatened him, saying, "ya'll gonna die tonight."

All three subjects were arrested and given a bond of $100,000.00. Jesus, Luis, and Elijah were booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
