El Paso, Texas— The Special Traffic Investigations unit continues to investigate a double fatality that occurred Sunday evening. The Preliminary information is a Military bus was northbound on Gateway North, approaching the intersection of State Line Road. Unit 1 was traveling eastbound on State Line Rd when the driver pulled out in front of the bus as it entered the intersection, causing the bus to T-bone the Honda Odyssey. The driver of the Odyssey was transported to a local hospital, where she later died. The passenger of the Honda died at the scene, and the rear passengers were transported to a local hospital to be treated for minor injuries.

The Driver of the bus remained on the scene and was not injured. Twenty-seven passengers from the bus were taken to a military hospital to be evaluated for superficial injuries. However, one passenger on the bus received a non-life-threatening injury. This is the 22nd and 23rd traffic fatality this year compared to 21 last year.
