EL PASO, Texas— On 04-24-25, at approximately 3:29 pm, police responded to a shots fired call at the 200 block of Hillview in west El Paso. When officers arrived, they learned that the subjects in a blue vehicle shot at a residence and then fled the scene. During that investigation, police received a second call at around 4:15 pm, which was a shots-fired call. A description of a blue Honda Ridgeline was associated with the call. As police responded to the location, an officer observed the vehicle near the 300 block of St. Vrain. The investigation revealed that the 16-year-old male, along with Yarde and Morales, was responsible for the shootings. No injuries were reported in these shootings. The 16-year-old male was referred to the Juvenile Probation Department, and Yarde and Morales were booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
