El Paso Police Department Celebrates 152 Years of Service with “152 In Blue” Community Event

EL PASO, Texas— The El Paso Police Department proudly invites the public to join us for “152 In Blue”, a free and family-friendly community celebration commemorating 152 years of dedicated service to the El Paso community.

The El Paso Police Department was established on May 17, 1873, and has since remained committed to public safety and community engagement. In honor of this milestone, the department is hosting an open event at the El Paso Police Academy to showcase various units and programs that support and protect the city every day.

Community members are encouraged to attend, meet officers, participate in hands-on safety activities, and enjoy live demonstrations by specialized teams. The event will feature food trucks, music, fitness activities, and more for the whole family.
