EL PASO, Texas— On the 11th day of May, police responded to the 5300 block of Dalton on a reported shooting and stabbing. When they arrived, they located three male subjects who had been stabbed. Crimes Against Persons Detectives were called in to take over the investigation. The initial investigation revealed that a party was occurring at the residence with a live band. During the party, 24-year-old and 56-year-old Myers entered the property to confront the homeowners about the loud noise. During the altercation, Benitez, De La Rosa, and Barrios were stabbed. Two of the three victims were transported to a local hospital; Benitez, who was transported, died at the hospital. Ransford and Michael Myers were arrested and charged with the above charges. Both were booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
