EL PASO, Texas— On 09-05-2025, Tracy Wright was arrested and charged with Discharge of a Firearm in Certain Municipalities and False Alarm or Report. The investigation revealed that at approximately 08:27 am, police were called when Wright called 911, advising that people were trying to break into his residence. When officers arrived, gunshots were heard within the residence. Police made contact with the homeowner, who, at the time, made comments that his nephew and other people had attempted to break in. Wright told police he fired at the intruders when they made entry into the residence. Additional resources were called in to include SWAT, Crisis Management Team, and Crisis Intervention Team. Police made entry into the residence, and through the investigation, it was later determined that Wright fired a shotgun through his walls while no one was attempting to break in. His nephew was out of town at the time of the incident. Two shotguns and a pistol were recovered from the residence. Wright was booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
