El Paso, Texas – A man was arrested on October 21, 2025, following a reported kidnapping at the Government Employees Credit Union (GECU) at 9435 Dyer St. According to witnesses, the suspect entered the branch acting nervously and later claimed to an employee that armed men were following him. The suspect then grabbed the employee, implied he had a weapon, and forced him into an office and later outside the building, saying he planned to use the employee as a “shield.”

The victim managed to escape while police assistance was requested. Officers quickly located the suspect nearby, and Luis Fernando Colomo was charged with aggravated kidnapping Use As Shield/Hostage. Prior to this incident, on 10/10/25 Colomo was arrested on a warrant for assaulting a security officer and was given a personal recognizance bond.
