EL PASO, Texas— On January 13th, at around, police were called to 3910 Doniphan (Vape City) for a reported aggravated robbery. When officers arrived, they met with an employee who told the officers two men had entered the store, and one attempted to rob him while holding a gun. The employee also told the officers that the two men fled the store when he refused to give them property.

Police observed both men at the 900 block of Sunland Park. When officers attempted to approach them, both ran away. After a short foot pursuit, officers took Bueno and Gonzalez into custody behind a business. Officers confiscated a handgun. Bueno and Gonzalez were both booked into the El Paso County Detention facility.
