EL PASO, Texas— On 05-16-2026, Officers, while out on patrol, observed a vehicle with a couple arguing. When the officers approached the vehicle, a woman hurried away. Officers then approached the driver, who quickly put the vehicle in reverse, committing a traffic violation in the officers' presence.

Officers attempted to conduct a traffic stop, but the driver refused to stop. During the refusal, he threw a large plastic bag out of the vehicle. The driver finally stopped at the intersection of Alameda and Clark. Officers recovered the large plastic bag, which contained 74 individually wrapped baggies of cocaine. Delara was charged with evading and with the narcotics that were recovered. He was booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility.
