EL PASO, Texas – On November 6th, 2026 officers responded to a collision at the 7000 block of Alameda involving two vehicles. The Special Traffic Investigation Unit responded to the scene and the preliminary investigation revealed a 2010 Honda Fit was traveling west bound on Alameda and made a left turn. At the same time a 2013 Audi A4 was traveling east bound on Alameda and was unable to avoid colliding with the Honda Fit. Oliver Yepes was transported to a local hospital. Unfortunately, Oliver Yepes succumbed to injuries sustained in the collision.

A contributing factor in the collision is failure to yield the right of way when turning. The investigation continues…
