City to Provide Free Flu Shots

Be POWERflu Campaign Aims to Protect Residents

EL PASO, Texas—The City of El Paso Department of Public Health and the El Paso Fire Department are kicking off the Be POWERflu campaign by offering FREE flu vaccines to individuals 6 months of age and older at any of the City's Community Clinics.

El Paso Community Clinics, which require no appointment or insurance, are open for vaccinations Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The clinics are closed for lunch from noon to 1 p.m. and on Saturday and Sunday. They are located at:

- Westside, 7380 Remcon Cir.
- Henderson, 721 S. Mesa St.
- Northeast, 9566 Railroad Dr.
- Mission Valley, 9341 Alameda Ave.
- Medical Center of the Americas, 4240 Alameda Ave.

The City is also partnering with local organizations to provide Be POWERflu Pop-Up Events which are listed online at BePOWERflu.com.

The Be POWERflu campaign aims to reduce the risk of severe illness and hospitalizations caused by flu-related complications. The vaccine is available for all individuals for whom it is approved, in accordance with current Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommendations.

Getting a flu shot each year provides the best protection against the virus, significantly reducing the risk of infection and flu-related hospitalizations. Widespread vaccination also helps preserve hospital capacity for other serious illnesses and emergencies.

For more information on the flu vaccine and upcoming Be POWERflu events, visit BePowerFlu.com.
