In conjunction with the office of City Representative Sam Morgan of District 4, the City of El Paso's Capital Improvement Department has scheduled a preconstruction community meeting at which members of the public will learn about the construction schedules for the Roundhouse and Lazy Cow Trailhead projects. The Roundhouse project will be located approximately 1.3 miles north of the intersection of Loma Real Avenue and Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard, while the Lazy Cow project will be located near Loma Clara Court and Officer Andrew Barcena Drive.

The trailhead projects will be receiving the following services and amenities:

- Construction of parking spaces to provide public better access to the trail
- Installation of pet waste stations, trash cans, benches and picnic tables
- Landscaping

These projects are part of the City of El Paso's commitment to enhance El Paso's quality of life through the creation of recreational, cultural and educational environments.
