Pebble Hills Tactical Charge Man in October Offer Up Theft

Date/Time: Friday, October 20, 2017 @ 9:25 a.m.
Location: 7101 Gateway West (Wal-Mart Parking lot)
Arrested: 21-year old Andres VASQUEZ of El Paso, TX

EL PASO, Texas – The El Paso Police Department’s Pebble Hills Tactical unit has arrested and charged 21-year old Andrew VASQUEZ with Robbery after an October 20 incident. The investigation revealed that the victim (22-year old male) had set up to meet VASQUEZ to purchase a cell phone that VASQUEZ was selling. The victim tried to set up the meeting inside the business but VASQUEZ met the victim in the parking lot of the business. After viewing the cell phone, the victim took out his wallet to purchase the item, when VASQUEZ grabbed the victim’s wallet, struck the victim with an elbow, and sped off in his vehicle. The victim attempted to grab the vehicle that VASQUEZ was driving when he was knocked to the ground. VASQUEZ fled the scene with the cell phone and the victim’s wallet/money. The Pebble Hills Tactical unit secured an arrest warrant for VASQUEZ. He was arrested on 12/05/2017 and booked on the offense of Robbery. His bond was set at $50,000.00.
